

ARBEITSBLATT:
THE OCTOBER REVOLUTION AND LENIN'S POLICY

digact[®]
media

Assignment:

The war casualties inflicted on Russia were particularly severe, and in 1917 both army and civilian population suffered from an extremely bad supply situation and from hunger. Vast parts of the Russian population yearned for immediate peace. Due to this situation the Russian Tsar had to abdicate, a provisional government was established and after the October Revolution Lenin came into power.

What were the characteristics of Lenin's policy and his first political moves?

Describe Lenin's political approach in relation to the First World War, and the economic and social policy closely connected to it!

Answers:
